

Tuesday, 28th July 2026

Time	W3.01	642	728	822	731
08:00	Registration and refreshments
09:00	Welcome, Introductions and Opening Remarks
09:15	Keynote Address: Professor Juan Bornman. Who Speaks for Inclusion? Communication, Collaboration, and
10:10	International perspectives on inclusive education 2	Sensory modalities and self-expression	Workshop: The Shomool Approach: An Institutional Intervention for Inclusive Education	Technology, social media, artificial intelligence
11:20	Coffee break/ networking
12:00	Conflict, displacement, migration and inclusive education	Workshop: Hearing All Voices: Multi-Modal Methods to Elicit Perspectives of People with SEND and Communication Differences	Differentiated instruction and teaching practice	Sharing professional knowledge, experience and development
13:10	Lunch and poster session
14:10	Symposium: Studying Higher Education and Disability Across Systems: Methods, Data, and Institutional Innovation	Symposium: Identifying and helping dyscalculic learners	Workshop: Inclusive Leadership for Neurodiversity: A Whole-School Framework	Workshop: Empowering Teachers Through Mindfulness. Insights into the HAND:ET Programme
15:40	Coffee break/ networking/ posters
16:15	Education as a profession: diversity and teacher training	Emotional development, mental wellbeing and inclusion	Complex needs 1: the voice and experience of children and parents	Contemporary issues in higher and further education 2	Workshop: A global workshop on creating a national approach to inclusive postsecondary education for students with intellectual disability
17:30	Closing remarks				