

Monday, 27th July 2026

Time	W3.01	642	728	822	731
08:00	Registration and refreshments
09:00	Welcome, Introductions and Opening Remarks
09:15	Keynote Address: Professor Nidhi Singal. From universal prescriptions to local possibilities: A critical reframing of
10:10	International perspectives on inclusive education 1	Inclusion, exclusion, discrimination	Early years education and inclusion	Autism in mainstream school systems	Workshop: Building Consensus Among Inclusive Leadership: From Chaos to Connection
11:20	Coffee break/ networking
12:00	From policy to practice: implementing inclusion	Workshop: Behave or be labelled	Mathematical cognition and dyscalculia	Autism: educational practice
13:10	Lunch and poster session
14:10	Symposium: Reimagining Disability Inclusion in Higher Education: Global Patterns, Local Realities	Symposium: Where does the SENCo, or related role, sit within the policy landscape? Perspectives from Ireland, England, Sweden and Luxembourg.	Workshop: From Questions to Inclusion: Practical Screening Tools in Schools Using the Washington Group Approach	Workshop: Supporting Neurodiverse Students in Higher Education: Course Design to Campus Connection
15:40	Coffee break/ networking/ posters
16:15	Contemporary issues in higher and further education 1	Inclusive practice in mainstream classrooms: barriers and solutions 1	Speech development, reading, dyslexia	Workshop: Decolonial reflexivity, positionality and inclusive practice in SEND and neurodiverse contexts
17:30	Welcome Evening Reception				